("PECO I") entered into an agreement with Phillips Edison Limited Partnership ("PELP"), to acquire certain real estate assets and the third-party asset management business of PELP, its sponsor and external advisor. The closing of the acquisition is expected to occur in the fourth quarter of 2017, subject to, among other items, the approval of PECO I stockholders, regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions. In connection with the proposed acquisition, the share repurchase program ("SRP") has been suspended for the month of May but is expected to resume in June after the filing of a preliminary proxy statement. Relevant limitations in the SRP will still be applicable and we will not be able to repurchase shares other than those submitted in connection with a stockholder's death, disability or determination of incompetence.
